

2016 York University-Beihang University Summer School (July 18-31st 2016)

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

York University and Beihang University have organized a joint Summer School since 2013. The two-week long Summer School is a program of expert lectures, discussions and group work based on various topics and excursions offered every year in July, either in Canada or in China. It provides students with an opportunity to gain international experience, interact with peers from a different culture, exchange opinions and ideas about topics of interest to students. The official language of the Summer School is English.

In 2016 the Summer School will take place at Beihang University on July 18-31st. Beihang University will offer accommodation and most meals on weekdays at no charge. York students are responsible for airfare, meals, personal expenses and trips/excursions that are not part of – or covered by- the program organized by Beihang University. Students are eligible to apply for the York International Mobility Award.

We invite applications from students of ALL disciplines. Interested students are invited to apply online by JUNE 3rd, 2016 at:
