

CITIZENSHIP: Global

Leverage your international experience

N102 (Nat Taylor Cinema), 15th November 2018 (12pm to 3pm)

Program

12:15 – 12:30 Welcome by University partners

- Dr Narda Razack, Associate Dean for Global & Community Engagement
- Helen Balderama, Associate Director, International Partnerships and Programs, York International

12:30 – 13:30 Session 1: Panel of experts to discuss:

Immediate impact of international education experiences (study & internships abroad) upon return to Canada.

How international education experiences contribute to the understanding of Global Citizenship and in empowering students to act and address global challenges.

Discuss the real experience of leading a group of students on a study abroad program.

- Vinitha Gengatharan, Executive Director, York International
- Dr Narda Razack, Associate Dean Global & Community Engagement, Office of the Dean LA&PS
- Professor Adriano Solis, School of Administrative Studies
- Ana Maria Martinez – Research Associate, Faculty of Environmental Studies, Los Nubes Project.

13:30 – 13:45 Break

13:45 – 14:15 Session 2: Global competences: what does it mean for future work, and career opportunities?

- Carolyn Steele, Career Development Coordinator, Career Centre

14:15 – 14:25 Summer study abroad LA&PS contest winners

14:25 – 14:45 Closing and networking