

Australian Studies Summer School

Discover Australia's incredible history and culture through an exciting blend of field trips and classroom learning in January 2020.

deakin.edu.au/studyabroad

Deakin University CRICOS Provider Code: 00113B

Join Deakin University's immersive short program in January 2020

The program

The Australian Studies Summer School program offers you an insight into this country's history, geography, politics, culture, and its representation in media worldwide. The program will be delivered through an exciting mix of academic-led cultural field trips and deeply engaging classroom learning.

Cost

Program cost is AUD$4500 (subject to change) which includes tuition, accommodation, welcome dinner, surf day and excursions.

Location

The program is based at our Melbourne Burwood Campus, Deakin's largest campus. Located a short trip from the city's central business district, it offers the perfect balance between city lifestyle and suburban comfort. The campus boasts world-class facilities and a wide range of learning and social spaces.

Dates

The program commences 5 January 2020 and concludes on 25 January 2020. Applications open Monday, 2 September 2019.

Easy credit transfer

You will receive a transcript for easy credit transfer, worth approximately 3-4 US credits/ 7.5 ECTS.

Email us

deakin-summer@deakin.edu.au

Photos: (top) Deakin Burwood on-campus student residences; (reverse) the iconic Flinders Street Station in Melbourne's CBD. Published: July 2019

deakin.edu.au/studyabroad

Published: July 2019