

Philippine Folk Dance

This summer abroad course will explore the complexity of the colonial history, geographical make up and postcolonial predicament of Philippine culture through participating in traditional dance, excursions, and activities in and around Manila and Bulacan.

In taking this course students can reflect upon how Filipinos have negotiated their everyday lives, the outside, and various forces that have entered their locales.

PROGRAM DATES:

July 12 – August 7, 2020

INSTRUCTOR

Professor Patrick Alcedo

alcedo@yorku.ca

GO GLOBAL PROJECTS ASSISTANT, YORK INTERNATIONAL

Marierose Talla

yuabroad@yorku.ca

ELIGIBILITY

Open to non-major and non-York post-secondary students by permission of Course Director

<https://yorkinternational.yorku.ca/dance2510/>

DEPOSITS AND DEADLINES

By February 2020: non-refundable deposit

COSTS AND ENROLMENT

Program fee range: TBD*

Included

Accommodations
Excursions/Field activities
Welcome reception
guard.me@ Health Insurance

Not Included

Airfare to and from Manila
Tuition fee (Payable to York)
Any Personal expense

*Final program fees will be based on the confirmed number of participants.

<https://dance.ampd.yorku.ca/>