The Netherlands & Europeanization

Binnenhof, the Hague, the Netherlands

Interested in European politics and policies? This intensive summer course fosters an understanding of political, social, and economic transformations in the EU by focusing on one of the original six member states, the Netherlands. Through lectures, meetings with policymakers, and study tours of Dutch and EU institutions, this course takes a ground-level perspective on Europeanization from The Hague, Maastricht, Brussels and Rotterdam. Students will also be able to visit museums and other cultural activities.
