Subject: Virtual Summer Program-Programa virtual de verano, Universidad de Costa Rica

Dear colleagues,

I hope that you and your families are safe and healthy in these complicated times for us all.

Attached, you will find information about the Virtual Summer Program that the University of Costa Rica will offer in August 2020, as an opportunity for students to learn about Latin American Studies and Spanish language, despite of the physical distance.

The course Latin American Studies and Spanish as a Second Language, which will be taught in English, provides an approach to Latin American culture, from a journey through its history, economic, political and social processes, literature, linguistic diversity, myths, values, prejudices, problems and challenges to better understand its cultural manifestations, based on its diversity.

I would really appreciate it if you shared this information with your students or with other colleagues who could help us promote the program.

Kind regards,

Estimables colegas:

Espero que ustedes y sus familias estén sanos y salvos en estos tiempos complicados para todos nosotros.

Adjunto, encontrarán información sobre el programa virtual de verano que la Universidad de Costa Rica ofrecerá en agosto de 2020, como una oportunidad para que los estudiantes aprendan sobre los estudios latinoamericanos e idioma español, a pesar de la distancia física.

El curso Latin American Studies and Spanish as a Second Language, que será impartido en inglés, ofrece un acercamiento a la cultura latinoamericana, desde un viaje a través de su historia, procesos económicos, políticos y sociales, literatura, diversidad lingüística, mitos, valores, prejuicios, problemas y desafíos para comprender mejor sus manifestaciones culturales, basadas en su diversidad.

En el caso de estudiantes latinoamericanos, tienen la opción de llevar sólo el componente teórico de los estudios latinoamericanos y no así la parte de idioma. Entonces, en caso de que haya alguna persona interesada en dicho componente, podemos brindarle una oferta.

Agradecería mucho que compartieran esta información con sus estudiantes o con otros colegas que podrían ayudarnos a promover el programa.
