The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) is a comprehensive research university with a global vision. It was founded with a mission to combine tradition with modernity and to bring together China and the West. CUHK's firmly rooted Chinese culture, multiculturalism and its unique college system set itself apart from other universities in Hong Kong and the region.

CUHK has always been at the forefront of teaching and research, nurturing the next generation of leaders in all fields and advancing the frontiers of knowledge and technology. The galaxy of distinguished scholars and researchers at CUHK include a Nobel Laureate, a Fields medallist, a Turing Award winner, and countless academics with international recognition.

Located in Shatin, a suburban area of Hong Kong, the CUHK campus overlooks the scenic Tolo Harbour and is nestled in lush greenery. Over the years, it has evolved into the largest, greenest and most sustainably designed campus in the city. A wide range of academic, residential, sports and leisure facilities provide an all-round campus experience for anyone studying at CUHK.

THE OFFICE OF ACADEMIC LINKS

The Office of Academic Links (OAL) at CUHK serves as the international relations arm for the University. OAL drives internationalisation of the University in its research, teaching and learning programmes. It develops global learning programmes to nurture students to have a high degree of intercultural sensitivity, acceptability and a global perspective and welcomes students from around the world to experience CUHK's outstanding teaching and vibrant campus community.

Student exchange and study abroad programmes

The first student exchange programme at CUHK was launched in 1965 with the University of California system. Since then, CUHK has expanded its exchange partner network to receive students from over 270 institutions in more than 30 locations worldwide. With a population of over 3,500 international visiting students each year, CUHK is truly an international melting pot.

We are here for you

OAL will be your home department at CUHK and is the single point of contact to facilitate all aspects of your study at the University, both before and after arrival.

HONG KONG

Asia's World City, City of Life

Hong Kong is not just an ordinary metropolitan city. It is the hub of Asia. A city that never sleeps with non-stop intensity. A perfect blend of fascinating contrasts where East meets West, where busy city pace meets natural countryside, and where endless skyscrapers meet traditional lifestyle. Here, you can find a variety of rich and diverse experiences packed in an easy and fast to get around city.

Experience life in an international cosmopolitan

About 8% of Hong Kong's population of 7.41 million are from foreign countries, creating multicultural lifestyles that are unique to the city.

Learn about business and trade in the world's freest economy

Hong Kong has exceptional autonomy in trade and business where many multi-national corporations establish regional headquarters here. Many people come to learn the secrets of Hong Kong's success and to establish networks for their future careers.

Follow traces of Chinese and Western cultures

Traditional Chinese values such as loyalty to friends and family, and respect for the elderly are well preserved while its history as a former British colony has left a legacy of western ways.

Explore the outdoors

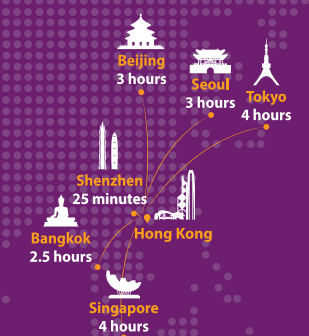

Escape the bustling city life and enjoy the wide variety of outdoor activities available, just minutes away from the urban centre.

Eat and shop around the clock

Street stalls and shopping malls offer great bargains and operate until late in the evening. Chinese and international cuisines are abundant and delicious night snacks can be found at 24-hour eateries.

Travel within East Asia in a breeze

Hong Kong is less than 5 hours away from most of the major cities in East Asia. With convenient and extensive connections to mainland China and nearby countries, there are many options for a quick study break over the weekends.

LIFE ON EXCHANGE

Getting around the city

CUHK has its own train station, connected to the city's extensive MTR metro network. The nearby suburban town of Shatin, the urban centres of Mong Kok, Tsim Sha Tsui and Central, and the border with mainland China are all within reach in 30 minutes. An abundance of public transportation modes including metro, buses, minibuses, trams, ferries and taxis take you to all corners of Hong Kong.

Living on campus

Living on the CUHK campus is convenient and affordable. OAL will help to place international students in on-campus accommodations (hostels), where there are plenty of opportunities to integrate with locals through the many formal and informal activities organised by the hostels. A wide range of facilities, including world-class libraries, art museum, music halls, swimming pool, sport fields, tennis courts, squash courts, water sports centre and gymnasiums provide an all-round campus experience.

Studying about China and other disciplines

CUHK is the best place for you to learn about China given Hong Kong's special geographical and political context, and CUHK's rich Chinese tradition, culture and ties. This is reflected in a wide variety of disciplines at the University, including humanities, social science, business and the sciences. CUHK's Business, Engineering, Law and Medical Schools are reputable training grounds for professionals in their respective fields as well as centres of seminal research.

Experiencing the unique college system

CUHK is the only university in Hong Kong with a collegiate system. The nine colleges offer a plethora of non-formal learning opportunities to complement the formal curricula. Undergraduate international students are affiliated with one of the colleges and benefit from the college community through which they get to know the locals and their customs.

ACADEMICS

Chinese Language Courses

With a history of over half a century, the Yale-China Chinese Language Centre (CLC) at CUHK is at the forefront of Chinese learning techniques and is one of the largest centres of its kind worldwide. The CLC offers Putonghua (Mandarin) and Cantonese courses from beginner to advanced levels. As an international undergraduate student, you can take up to 6 units of approved Chinese language courses per term as part of your study programme.

Centre for China Studies

Courses offered in the Chinese Studies Programme at the CUHK Centre for China Studies are all taught in English and are popular among international students who are either looking to deepen their knowledge on China or just want to catch a glimpse of Chinese culture or society irrespective of what majors they are. A sample of the many courses include:

Please visit www.oal.cuhk.edu.hk/getting_started/ for a comprehensive list of courses taught in English and available to international students.

CUHK's world-class library facilities are hubs for knowledge and idea exchange.

Immerse in Chinese culture through traditional Chinese arts and crafts.

OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

Cultural and social experiences are integral parts of your exchange at CUHK besides classroom education. A wide range of activities are available outside the classroom for you to get in touch with local and international students, explore Chinese culture, experience Hong Kong and enjoy your time at CUHK.

Orientation

The orientation prepares you for your time at CUHK and covers extensive information for surviving on campus and in Hong Kong. It is an excellent opportunity to network with fellow international students.

Cultural and extra-curricular activities

Field trips and excursions around town, gatherings, and classes in Chinese martial arts, calligraphy and cooking are just some of the many activities available to international students at CUHK.

Community service programme

Opportunities are available to international students to engage in community service. For example, The Rural Schools Service Project brings you to teach English or Putonghua at local primary schools and gives you a chance to join cultural activities organised by the schools.

Accommodation

Undergraduate international students live in shared accommodation at one of the nine colleges. They are located across the campus and are easily accessible with the on-campus bus system. Living with a local roommate is the quickest way to adapt to the new environment and culture.

Meeting the locals

There will be many opportunities to meet local students at classes, canteens, student clubs, hiking trips, and other social gatherings. Be curious, open-minded and daring.

Student organisations

CUHK boasts a variety of student organisations, from Chinese martial arts to photography to drama. Those within academic departments and colleges are often the most active. Most activities are in Cantonese but international students can participate with rewarding results.

Student services and facilities

A range of facilities, resources and support services are available to support your life at CUHK. They include computing labs, libraries, health clinic, counselling services, sports facilities, canteens, bookstores, supermarket, banks and even a hair salon.

College activities

The Colleges organise a variety of activities, including singing contests, varsity sports, drama nights, festive celebrations and language enhancement programmes. Dessert nights are not to be missed.

COST OF LIVING

Generally speaking, living in Hong Kong can be expensive, however living at CUHK is extremely affordable as on-campus hostels and meals at student canteens are heavily subsidised. Traveling and eating around town are also inexpensive. The table on the right shows the approximate living costs at CUHK for an undergraduate in one term.

SUMMER@CUHK

CUHK International Summer School

The CUHK International Summer School (ISS) was first offered in 2004 and has since become one of the most popular university summer programmes in the region. Each year, over 600 international students gather at the CUHK campus to join local students in an intensive programme of academic and cultural immersion. This is a great opportunity for you to gain a Hong Kong and Asian perspective from your peers and to explore Chinese culture through classroom learning, activities and field trips.

July Session

The ISS July Session is a 5-week programme that takes place in late June to early August. You can enrol in up to two 3-credit courses in a wide range of academic disciplines.

More than a dozen courses are on offer in these areas:

- Global Business and Management
- Understanding China
- Chinese Language (Putonghua / Mandarin and Cantonese)
- Environment, Science and Technology
- Society and Human Interaction

August Session

The ISS August Session is a 3-week programme that runs from early to late August. You can enrol in two 3-credit courses of intensive Chinese language training in Putonghua (Mandarin). Beginner to advanced levels are available. There are opportunities to acquire pragmatic competence through classroom learning and immersion activities.

Visit www.summer.cuhk.edu.hk for more details on the CUHK International Summer School.

SURP is an invaluable opportunity for undergraduates to explore their postgraduate careers.

The ISS is a summer programme that combines vigorous academic studies and cultural immersion for students from around the world.

Summer Undergraduate Research Programme

The Summer Undergraduate Research Programme (SURP) is an opportunity for international undergraduate students to undertake research attachment at CUHK for eight weeks from June to August. Students will conduct research under the supervision of a CUHK faculty member and earn 3 credits upon successful completion of the programme.

Visit www.summer.cuhk.edu.hk/surp for more details on the Summer Undergraduate Research Programme.
