Experience the great atmosphere at Hessen International Summer University Fulda (ISU)

The city of Fulda, founded over 1,200 years ago, is the home of one of the most beautiful baroque quarters in Germany. The picturesque Old Town of Fulda has timbered houses and winding cobbled lanes with cosy cafés and bars.

Founded in 1974, Fulda University currently encompasses eight departments with over 60 study programmes, approximately 9,000 students, and over 1,500 international students from more than 100 countries.

Every summer, students from all over the world meet at Fulda University of Applied Sciences to study in an inspiring atmosphere and spend an unforgettable time together. Apart from classes, workshops, and language courses, ISU students will go on regional and national field trips.

Come along and make new friends. Explore German cities, famous sites and learn more about Germany's history.
