- Welcome all visitors to York International including students, staff, faculty, community members and other guests via the Front Desk.
- Respond to questions from students, staff, faculty, visitors and guests in a professional manner and refer more complex or sensitive enquiries to the relevant full-time staff at York International and other departments.
- Answer general questions and refer students, staff, faculty, visitors and guests who visit the student information kiosk/Global Café/York International office etc. to the relevant campus and community resources as required.
- Answer phone calls, emails and other communications.
 - Promote events, programs, services, and initiatives related to international students and mobility programs (exchange, summer study abroad and internships) through sharing information at the Front Desk.
- Support the Go Global team and the Student Coordinator, Go Global with in-office delegation visits.
 - Work collaboratively with other student leaders and YI staff to facilitate peer-to-peer learning and foster a global community.
- Provide informal and formal involvement coaching to international students looking for opportunities to get involved with York International and in the York community.
 - Support and operate on-campus welcome booths by meeting international students upon arrival, providing welcome kits, helping them with any difficulties that may arise and providing information about York International, campus resources, accommodation etc.
- Support other summer programming as needed e.g. Global Connections webinars.
 - Stay informed on York International programs, services and initiatives in order to provide accurate information and service to all community members and guests.
- Provide administrative assistance as assigned (e.g. record keeping, photocopying, and email correspondence).
- Consult with appropriate staff across York International to determine the needs for each project and how to meet those needs through office support.
- Escalate serious problems or matters to the appropriate full-time staff.
- Stay in regular contact with supervisor and communicate updates regularly to appropriate YI team members and campus partners.
- Attend regular one-on-one meetings, team meetings, training, and other professional development workshops as assigned by a supervisor.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
